As we go into the New Year, we ask that if you have a new address, phone number or email address, to please update your contact information with the office. Thanks to our database software we are able to send out emails and text messages to everyone very quickly. Updating your information means that you will be notified via text or email if we have to cancel services due to inclement weather.

Thank you!

“Then he said to his disciples, ‘The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore, pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. “Matthew 9:37-38

A blessed new year to all of you! As we rip off the last page of our 2021 calendar, we can't wait to see it over, to see this year gone, to see this year behind us. The year 2021 may have been a bad year for us in many ways, the addition of some variants to the pandemic which didn't stop to terrorize people, and so many other challenges.

However, as true Christians all these contexts can't keep us from bringing people to Christ. It is better for us to look back at this year as a time when Christ cared for us in many ways else, we may have endured during in 2021?

I still believe in Jesus' vision of a need for workers that even though we are facing all types of challenges, we need to respond to Jesus' Great Commission.

I still believe in Jesus' three ways given to us as His instruments to reach the workers: praying, sending, and going.

I believe that whatever we face while praying, sending, and going, we can trust that God goes before us to prepare the ground.

As for ripples of joy and response to the Jesus' Great Commission, Trinity UMC celebrate:

- The accomplishment of Trinity shoebox Project
- The Thanksgiving meal served to our community
- The Food pantry which is at work for our community
- The Mitten Tree/blankets for women shelter
- The Women Christmas Tea served to our community
- The Shut in Christmas gifts
- The ongoing women Bible Study...

I am very grateful to have highly gifted collaborators as church leaders, staff team, and volunteers who give their body, mind and soul and display their gifts to serve God in truth and in spirit. And I am very grateful to see the highest discipleship response of all our church members.

I believe we have key opportunities before us:

Let's live a faithful life to our Lord and take Trinity UMC to a deeper vitality and engage more in volunteer service that is life-giving and life changing.

As instruments of God, let's put together strategies to invite people to church.

Let's assess the spiritual needs of our church and community.

Let's use our viable options to strengthen the ministry of our church.

Let's be glad and rejoice forever in what God is opening and will open for our church this year 2022.

Happy New Year and stay with God!

Rev. Mulongo Mpoyo

Work and Worship Balance

If you have a church question there is a good chance that Jessica Marschie has the answer. Don't you love that about her?! As Trinity's Administrative Assistant, Jessica has her finger on the pulse of church activities. For committee chair people, if the pastor is not available, Jessica is your "go to" person.

The SPRC would like to remind church leaders and members that Jessica's work hours are Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 9:00-1:00. She is paid to answer your questions and guide you during these hours.

On Sunday mornings Jessica comes to church with her family to worship our Lord. Please respect her wishes to be like the rest of us on a Sunday morning. Allow her to receive the Sabbath time of peace, renewal and recovery that we all so desperately need on a Sunday morning. Allow her to worship our Lord with her wonderful family.

For some of us Sunday morning is the best time for us to get a message to Jessica. If so, please write a detailed note, include your name and contact information, and put the note on Jessica's desk or in the receptacle on her office door. Whenever I do that, Jessica has responded to me promptly, usually on her next work day.

The SPRC would like to thank you in advance for caring for Jessica. We are blessed to have her serving Pastor Mpyo and all Trinity UMC members.

thank you

The children of Henry Guell would like to thank everybody in the congregation for the cards, notes, prayers, visits and food.

October 2016, Henry had a stroke.

Summer 2017, he wanted to go home and stay at home. And he never sat still. The day care women and Jan drove him around from Lomira, to Milwaukee, to Madison, to Wautoma, to Green Bay, to Sheboygan, and many places in between.

And he wanted to try to get to church as much as possible. He was so happy to be able to go to church and greet people. He couldn't see, but he knew people by their voice.

Thank you again to the Trinity Church Family.

Trinity Holiday Outreach Project

The Christmas gifts from Trinity's Mission & Outreach activity were delivered to Hope Health & Rehabilitation Center mid-December. Each resident and tenant received a beautifully simple figurine, a bottle of Suave Body Wash, and a bag of candy treats. Although we truly miss visiting our senior friends in person this year, we hope these gifts brought them joy during the holiday.

Thank you to the Caring Ministry Team, led by Betty Menzer, for delivering the gifts to the church members they visit thru their ministry.

Special thanks to Amy Unferth for designing and hand painting the figurines. We'd like to give a shout-out to Dan Dewhurst for assisting with the woodworking portion of this project, and especially to his wife, Pam, for volunteering him!

Also, many thanks to all who donated body wash! This gift is especially appreciated by the staff. Your generosity provided several extra bottles to share as needed throughout the year.

Interested in giving loom knitting a try? Please reach out to Heidi Zingsheim as a couple looms are immediately available.

Check out the green bin in the library where the yarn donations are kept. Take whatever yarn you like for whatever projects you enjoy!

Deadly Tornado Outbreak Brings Heartache Across Multiple States

Reported Dec 12th... Kentucky, Arkansas, Illinois, Missouri, Tennessee, and Mississippi were battered by dozens of tornadoes. The worst damage was across western Kentucky where Gov. Andy Beshear said he believes at least 70 people, and possibly more than that, lost their lives. He called the storms “the most severe tornado event in Kentucky’s history.” The city of Mayfield, with a population of 10,000 in Graves County, was especially devastated.

Samaritan’s Purse deployed team members, vehicles, and resources to both Kentucky and Arkansas. Within hours several staff members were on the ground in both states assessing damage and relief opportunities. One of their Disaster Response Units—a tractor trailer loaded with equipment and supplies—arrived onsite in Arkansas the morning after the disaster and another arrived in Kentucky the following day.

U.S. Disaster Relief

Samaritan’s Purse mobilizes and equips thousands of volunteers to provide emergency aid to U.S. victims of wildfires, floods, tornadoes, hurricanes, and other natural disasters. In the aftermath of major storms, their teams often stay behind to rebuild houses for people with nowhere else to turn for help.

Please Pray for emergency responders; for the many people affected by these storms as they grieve and recover; and for Samaritan’s Purse staff members as they serve the hurting in Jesus’ Name.

Volunteers Come from Several States to Help the Hurting

Volunteers started work on Dec. 14 patching roofs, cutting up fallen trees, and clearing debris. Former Vice President Mike Pence and his wife, Karen, worked hard on Saturday and helped clean up properties in the especially hard-hit city of Mayfield, along with dozens of other volunteers. Their visit was such an encouragement to everyone. With the widespread catastrophic devastation, hundreds of families still need assistance. Samaritan’s Purse will be working at multiple sites in Kentucky for some time, and many more volunteers are needed to bring help and hope in Jesus’ Name.

A great big thank you to everyone who helped with the Christmas Tea this year! Much time went into planning, shopping, preparing food, dusting off of teacups, decorating, setting tables and more! Thank you also to those who donated special items for door prizes. It was a successful event, with 46 people attending, and a lovely way to kick off the Christmas season. You won't want to miss it next year!
